All plans have been completed for the handling of this big race. Chairman John R. McCormick, of the Cherrydale Firemen's Association, has been tolling hard in order that everything will be conducted smoothly. It is his intention to make this an annual event for the big firemen's fair at Cherrydale. Tonight the runners will gnish at the fair grounds.

The course of the marathon gives Washingtonians and Virginians an epportunity of seeing the runners in action. Starting at The Times building at 6:30 o'clock, the barearmed lads will travel out Pennsyl-armed lads will travel out the distance.
